

This is a profiled steel closure designed to match the IBR roofing profile at the board flute. It is fitted at the ridge or headwall and prevents leaves, birds and vermin from getting under the flashing.

It is fitted to the upper surface of the roof sheet and is placed underneath the flashing.